

How To – Put on a show

Overview:

Schools shows are the highlight of the year and we understand a teachers' workload is already vast without the added pressures that come along with directing pupils to put on a good performance. Because of this Tron Participation have put together an interactive and fun CPD event that will help ease the stress and enable you to put on a fantastic show.

Process

Through a series of exercises and techniques teachers will learn quick and easy ways of making stylised theatre; these techniques can be used on large groups so there is no need to worry about that. Aside from directing we also understand the planning and preparation time needed to put on a show, we will show you how to create a prompt book, create and stick to a rehearsal schedule – these little hints and tips are sure to make your end of term show process smoother which in turn will impact on the show itself.

What we will explore

- Warm Up techniques
- Body propping
- Frozen tableaux
- Mime
- Use of lights
- Use of sound
- Prompt book
- Use of props
- Rehearsal schedules
