

Second Level - Transition

Overview:

Moving from Primary to Secondary school is exciting and nerve wracking. Tron participation understands how important this transition is and we are offering a drama workshop to ease the pupils into their new environment.

Using games and drama techniques in a fun way will allow pupils to make new friends and feel more comfortable being in a new setting

Aims:

- Explore issues surrounding transition
- Increase participants drama skills
- Increase confidence and teamwork skills

Objectives:

- Using icebreaker, team and confidence building exercises to explore transition
- Use drama techniques such as mime, frozen tableaux, storytelling to increase skill set of participants
- Through participation children will work in teams, present ideas and speak out in-front of the group

CfE Experiences and Outcomes:

- I value the opportunities I am given to make friends and be part of a group in a range of situations.
HWB 2-14a/3-14a
- I am aware of the need to respect personal space and boundaries and can recognise and respond appropriately to verbal and non-verbal communication. HWB 2-46b/3-46b
- As I listen and talk in different situations, I am learning to take turns and am developing my awareness of when to talk and when to listen. LIT 2-02a
- I have experienced the energy and excitement of presenting/performing for audiences and being part of an audience for other people's presentations/performances.
EXA 2-01a
- Inspired by a range of stimuli, I can express and communicate my ideas, thoughts and feelings through drama.
EXA 2-13a
