

TRON THEATRE PATRON

“I think of the Tron as ground zero of my career! It really set me on an eclectic path that I have never strayed from and have felt so lucky for all my life.” – Alan Cumming

BECOME A TRON PATRON

“For me, the Tron is the most important thing in the city and I am proud to be able to support the theatre.”

Jim Hayle, Tron Patron

Your support will help many different elements of the Tron’s work – from education and outreach activities to supporting emerging artists through to helping us to stage productions and keeping our building in a good state of repair.

TRON PARTICIPATION

Tron Participation (education & outreach) provides opportunities for everyone to participate in arts activities, regardless of age, ability or background.

“My experience of the education programme at the Tron Theatre has been nothing short of life changing.”

Andrew Mackie, Tron Participation member

TRON CREATIVE

Tron Creative provides support to new artists making work in Scotland: producers, writers, performers, designers, and other theatre makers.

“The support of Tron Creative has transformed my career as a theatre-maker and performer. I know of nothing more valuable to fledgling theatre professionals working in Glasgow today.”

Isobel McArthur, Tron Creative participant

DID YOU KNOW?

The Tron Theatre is a registered charity and box office sales only account for around one fifth of our income. We need YOUR help to continue to make all of our work, on stage and off, happen.
