AUTUMN WINTER 2018

WELCOME TO OUR AUTUMN WINTER 2018 SEASON

Image: John Johnston

'Faint light on stage littered with miscellaneous rubbish'... thus the opening stage direction of the ultimate in absurdist theatre, Samuel Beckett's Breath, which we staged last year to celebrate the première of this all too brief masterpiece in Glasgow some fifty years earlier.

Absurdism has continued as a theme throughout this year's programme and culminates in our staging one of the most extraordinary, hilarious, and surreal plays in modern theatre: Ballyturk by Enda Walsh. We are honoured to be given the opportunity to present the first British production of this contemporary masterpiece and we intend to do it proud. Ballyturk will be the final piece in a small but significant Irish season this autumn, opening with Scotties by Theatre Gu Leòr, followed by Fishamble and the quite unique and unmissable performer, Pat Kinevane staging all three of his award-winning and internationally acclaimed productions over three evenings.

At Halloween, Pitlochry Festival Theatre and Firebrand Theatre Company will present Rona Munro's play, The Last Witch and I have secured a very strong programme of visiting work for our intimate Changing House. The festive season hails the return of peerless panto performer, Johnny McKnight on stage with his Weegie reworking of Mammy Goose and we bring back a very popular tale for wee ones, Lisa Keenan's Remember December.

The Tron is the place to be for great theatre this autumn and don't forget that with a superb food and drink offering in the Bar + Kitchen, we really are worth a visit.

Hope to see you down here.

Andy Arnold
Artistic Director

WE ARE AN INTERNATIONALLY RESPECTED AND CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED VENUE WITH A LONG HISTORY OF PRESENTING SOME OF THE MOST EXCITING WORK ON THE SCOTTISH STAGE. WITH AN EMPHASIS ON SCOTTISH, UK AND WORLD PREMIÈRES AND A MIXED BILL OF NEW WRITING AND RE-WORKINGS OF ESTABLISHED TEXTS, TRON THEATRE IS THE PLACE TO EXPERIENCE NEW THEATRE FIRST.

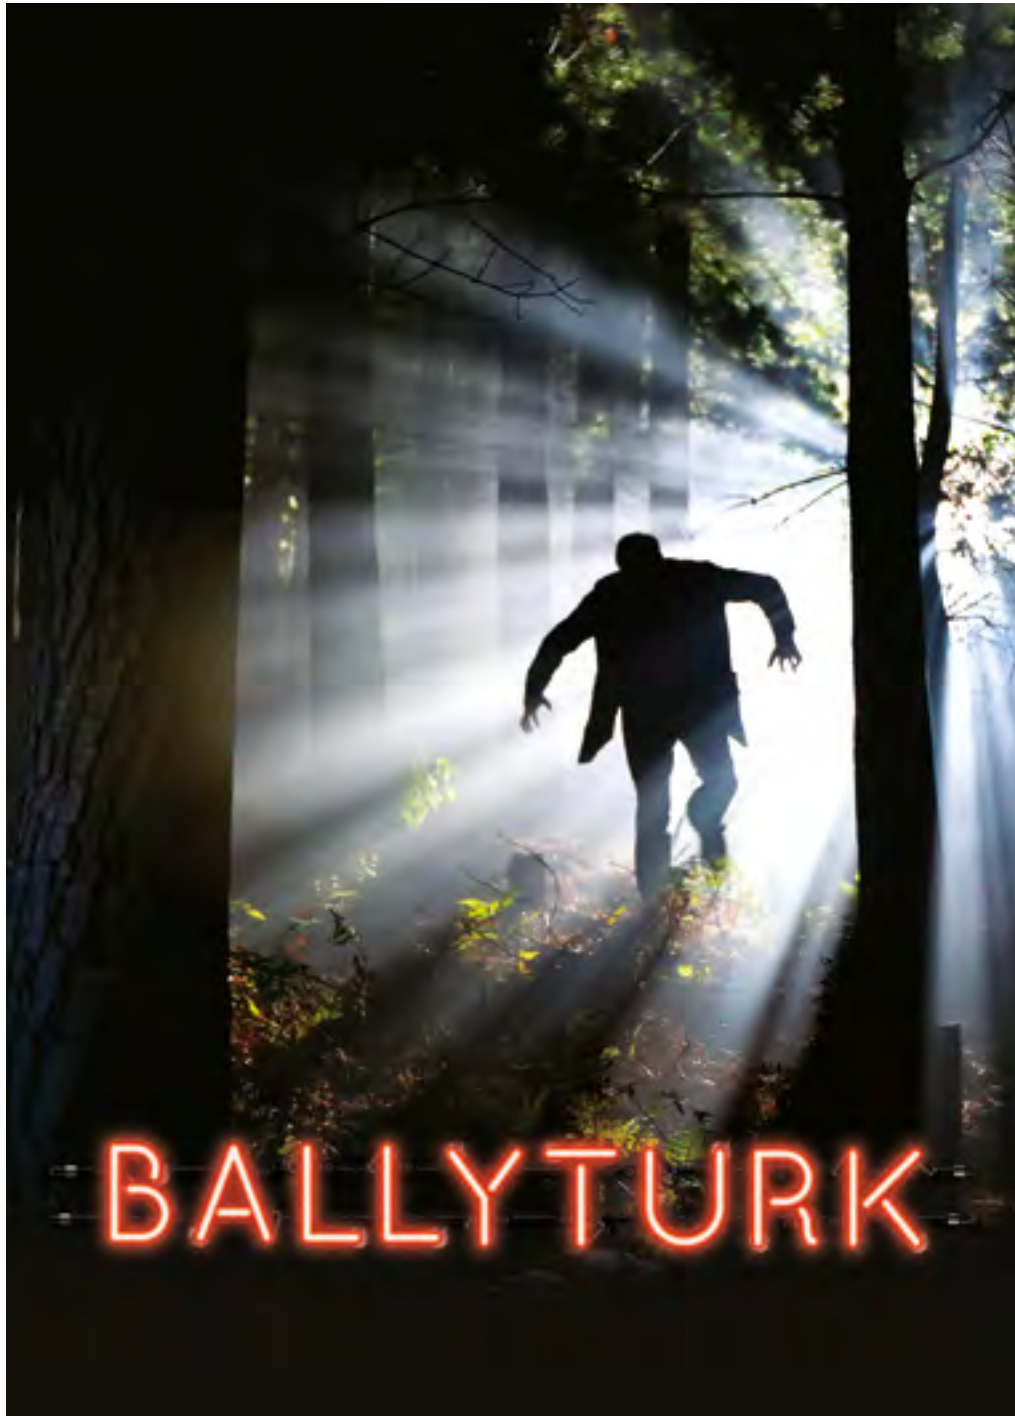

LOCATED IN GLASGOW'S MERCHANT CITY, THE BUILDING HOUSES THREE PERFORMANCE SPACES, REHEARSAL SPACE, OFFICES, A DEDICATED TRON PARTICIPATION WORKSHOP SPACE AND OUR VIBRANT TRON BAR & KITCHEN, SERVING MOUTH-WATERING FOOD AND DRINK THROUGHOUT THE DAY.

BALLYTURK

BY ENDA WALSH

A world is out there, imagined within the four walls of a room inhabited by two men. Will they ever escape to see it in reality? 'How can I talk about Ballyturk knowing that it's only ever inside and nowhere else?'

Ballyturk is Enda Walsh's moving meditation on the brevity of our existence, a mundane village with echoes of Dylan Thomas's Llareggub in Under Milk Wood, viewed through a Truman Show style filter of confined artificiality.

Explosions both literal and imagined, music and exhilarating physical comedy punctuate beautifully poetic renderings of life in the type of small town we have all visited, and, more likely, lived in. The result is exuberant, surreal, funny and gut-wrenchingly sad.

'I walk through Ballyturk and the birds are flyin' down from the woods... I can see them ahead outside Deasy's and they're feedin' on last night's chips... Her bare knees on the hard floor and Joyce Drench is packin' away tins of peas. Her head full of last night's Bingo, her agonising defeat to Marnie Reynolds and her own reliance on lime in lager. She hears him enter – the smoke on his breath visible before he is.'

MAMMY GOOSE

*'I present to you Eternal Youth.
Oh aye, I mind that song – The Bangles wisn't it?'*

Mammy Goose always thought she was going to be somebody, though life hasn't quite worked out like that. Her dreams of glittering Holyrood parties hob-knobbing with the Scottish elite like The Krankies and Sean Batty have gone down the pan. The frying pan. Her life is less Debbie McGhee more McGhee's the Bakers. She's working her fingers to the bone in that wee cafe of hers with her only friend in the world, Lucy – a talking goose (and you can imagine the stares in the street walking arm-in-arm with a 6ft goose).

As for her son Jack, well his heid is in the clouds right now. You see he's in love and considering leaving the family business. Mammy Goose's life is a mess, until a mysterious stranger makes her an offer – the chance to be young again. The chance to start over. And all she has to do is trade in her pet goose....

Will Mammy Goose choose eternal youth over friendship and love (seems to have worked out okay for Kim Kardashian, hasn't it)? Will Jack and his new pal Will dare to climb that hill together and see what's up there? Will Lucy the Goosey taste better with BBQ or plum sauce?

There's only one way to find out in this year's rip-rollicking panto Mammy Goose...

The Allusionist presents

THE ALLUSIONIST LIVE

As podcasts go, award-winning British show The Allusionist is a logophile's dream. Ever heard of Toki Pona (said to be 'the smallest language in the world') or indefinite hyperbolic numerals ('zillions, jillions or squillions')? Have you questioned Western yogic deployments of 'namaste', opening lines on dating apps, or dating systems of the BC, AD and BCE kind?

Producer and host Helen Zaltzman is here for you. A veteran podcaster with the long-running, hugely popular indie podcast Answer Me This! in 2007, Zaltzman started making The Allusionist in 2015. In each episode, she rumbles with language with infectious verve and a generous helping of pop culture. In 2018, Zaltzman brings her witty, effortlessly informative show to the stage, with musical support from Martin Austwick. Join her for a fascinating and irreverent adventure into the world we make with words.

'The show is filled with good humour and a great deal of levity to make one of the funniest and most educational podcasts around.'

FORGOTTEN

'Has no one a skitter o' dignity left?'

A unique collage of Kabuki dance and Irish storytelling, Forgotten has been a huge international success for Fishamble during the past decade. It is a captivating portrayal of four elderly characters living in retirement homes around Ireland. Pat Kinevane's haunting performance brings to life these sometimes forgotten voices of society.

'an incredibly moving piece of theatre... unequivocally beautiful.'

SILENT

'Hopeless, helpless, in-the-way person', Homeless McGoldrig has lost it all – including his mind. Dare to laugh at despair and gasp at redemption in this brave, bleak, beautiful production for which Fishamble and Pat Kinevane won an Olivier Award in 2016.

'This is virtuoso writing and performing: rich and loamy, hard as granite and revelling in surprising juxtapositions and cheeky, heartbreaking jokes that make you wince...writing and a performance of unflagging and effortless panache that grabs your heart and squeezes tightly.'

UNDERNEATH

Sticks and stones didn't break Her bones, but words and pointing crushed Her. Is Beauty really only skin deep? Does Ugliness hide somewhere deeper?

This stunning play, winner of the Adelaide Fringe Best Theatre Award in 2016 and The Scotsman Fringe First Award in 2015, is a blackly comic, rich and vivid tale of a life lived in secret, a testament to the people who live on the fringes, under the nose of everyday life. The multi-award-winning Fishamble production explores the surface, and what lies underneath.

'...exciting, hilarious, harrowing and heart breaking...A devastatingly brilliant piece of theatre.'

THE LAST WITCH

*'Plenty women are withered to dust at my age.
Dead in damp graves. But I'm as full of juice as an autumn bramble.'*

A rich, poetic tale full of ambiguity and suspense, The Last Witch re-imagines the true story of the alleged Witch of Dornoch. Did Janet Horne practise witchcraft? Or was she actually a free-thinking woman, ahead of her time? Could she really cure beasts, summon the wind and charm fish out of the sea? Or was she simply able to make others think she can?

From the writer of the acclaimed James Plays, Iron and Bold Girls, Rona Munro's tense, passionate play is brought vividly to life in this thrilling, new revival.

HISTORY OF A LIFE (WORK-IN-PROGRESS)

Wife, mistress, mother, opportunist, friend. The life of Roxana and her maid Amy is as scandalous an adventure as you could find. As Roxana traces the past through the echoes of her memory, you'll find a morality tale like no other.

Bringing Daniel Defoe's surprisingly contemporary debates on marriage, wealth, sexuality and autonomy to the stage, this is a provocative re-telling of the journey of a woman and her maid as they grappled with the world and the choices they had to make.

CAROL LAULA & GUESTS:

A Celebration of Female Independent Music Artists (FIMAs)

Building on the success of the Wicked Women live show series (as part of International Women's Day), Scottish singer-songwriter, Carol Laula, brings together and celebrates female songwriters in this unique collaboration. Featuring performances from Lisa Kowalski, Marie Collins, Linzi Clark and Jordan Stewart, the show aims to shine light on female music artists and songwriters at a time when iconic shows and festivals across the country are being questioned about gender equality in their performer line-ups. Raising awareness around the issue, Laula aims to shine a light on a new breed of talented female artists.

YEAR OF YOUNG PEOPLE 2018: WORKSHOPS FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS

This autumn we are delighted to celebrate Year of Young People 2018 with secondary schools across Glasgow and beyond through the delivery of free theatre and production skills workshops.*

Workshops will support and complement the curriculum for those studying English and Drama and will be tailored to suit your chosen year group. Schools selected to take part can host a free workshop on their premises, choosing the topic from the following specialist areas:

Performance Skills: Acting, Directing, Devising
Production Skills: Set Design, Costume, Lighting, Sound, Stage Makeup

For further information or to register your school's interest please contact Debbie Montgomery, Creative Learning Officer at debbie.montgomery@tron.co.uk

*Please note terms and conditions apply

For further information please contact Lisa Keenan, Creative Learning Manager lisa.keenan@tron.co.uk or book directly with Box Office on 0141 552 4267.

WORK FOR ADULTS

TRON STUDIO

Tron Studio is our adult community drama company where members meet regularly throughout the year for skills development workshops, as well as to attend theatre performances and create their own work. Tron Studio is currently fully subscribed but you can register your interest for future projects by contacting the Box Office on 0141 552 4267.

COSTUME & SET DESIGN

Participants will explore the creative process of designing for a theatre production. The course is directly linked to our autumn main stage production Ballyturk. Participants will learn about and explore the genre of absurdist theatre, explore themes from the text of Ballyturk, learn about script analysis, concept development, research process and model-making whilst exploring ideas around colour, shape, tone and mood.

The course is suitable for:

- Beginners with an interest in pursuing a career in design and looking for experience pre-college or university application
- Secondary teachers delivering national 4/5 or higher drama courses interested in CPD
- Artists who have an interest in theatre design and are looking to expand their practice

SUNDAYS

COMMUNITY CHOIR

LOVE TO SING?

Then you're invited to come join the Tron Community Choir. As one, we've belted out songs from Chaka Khan to ABBA, to Camera Obscura and Taylor Swift. We gig as much as we can and in the 2017/18 season played to 5000 people at the Hydro as part of Colours Classical, sang at a Refuweegee fundraiser at Kinning Park Complex and opened for Brass Aye! at their Wired and Chaired gig at Saint Luke's.

Rehearsals are on Mondays from 6.30pm-8.30pm. There are no auditions, anyone is welcome, zero experience is required. Your first session is on us then a small monthly membership fee means you can give your pipes a weekly work-out.

To join call Box Office on 0141 552 4267 and they'll get you signed up!

The Tron Community Choir is available for gigs and events. If you have a booking enquiry, please email Michael John O'Neill, michael.oneill@tron.co.uk

BAR & KITCHEN

WHERE YOU'RE ALWAYS WELCOME

'THIS GEM OF A PLACE IS WORTH THE EXTRA FIVE-MINUTE WALK ALONG ARGYLE STREET'

- TRIPADVISOR REVIEW

In the heart of the Merchant City we cook the finest Scottish produce served with a contemporary twist. Every season our Executive Head Chef Mark McKenzie fuses elements of different cuisines, from Thai to Middle Eastern, refining and honing until we have a well-crafted and totally original dish. We are also proud to offer a variety of vegan, vegetarian and gluten-free options.

Far from being a basic set meal, our pre-theatre offering is all part of your Tron Theatre experience. With so many fresh new ideas waiting to be tasted, the pre-theatre menu is the perfect way to begin an unforgettable evening out. Alongside our food we offer exciting drink combinations. A few of this season's new exotic craft beer picks include Peach IPA, Twisted Mango, Salted Caramel and Grapefruit Pale Ale.

Our dedicated team of servers and chefs hope to see you soon. Come on down, relax and enjoy food, drink and culture at Tron Bar & Kitchen this autumn season.

TRON PATRON MEMBERSHIP AN IDEAL GIFT

Give a Tron Patron membership and receive a gift from:

Belle & Blackley Hair & Beauty

Do you know someone who loves the Tron? The Tron's Patron memberships are an ideal gift for friends and family. With four levels to choose from – Bronze, Silver, Gold and Platinum – we have the ideal package for the theatre lover in your life. Bronze Patron annual memberships are just £40 a year and include a monthly newsletter, advance notice of productions, two tickets to a Tron Theatre Company production of their choice and 10% off purchases of all other tickets. Step up to a Silver Patron membership for £120 and they will receive a pair of tickets to three Tron Theatre Company productions of their choice as well as an invitation to our annual Supporter Evening and a discount in our Bar + Kitchen. Gold and Platinum patrons enjoy additional benefits such as invitations to our press nights with post show drink reception, special 'behind the scenes' events and talks with members of our casts and creative teams.

We are offering a special gift from our official hairdressing partners Belle and Blackley to anyone who purchases a gift membership or joins the Patron membership scheme for the first time, before the end of the year. You will be able to choose between a Ladies Blow Dry, Gents Cut & Style, Mini Manicure or Neck Back & Shoulder Massage at the award-winning city centre salon.

To take advantage of this fantastic offer call our Box Office on 0141 552 4267 or email development@tron.co.uk

You can also support the Tron by:

- Donate by text message: Text TRON01 £3 to 70070 (You can choose any value from £1, £2, £3, £4, £5 or £10).
- Donate in person when buying tickets or online
- Make a regular donation to our work by direct debit
- Make a one-off donation to an area of our work e.g. educational outreach, Tron Creative
- Leave a legacy to the Tron by making a gift in your will

If you want to know more or have any ideas of your own, please contact Lucy Christopher, Business Development Manager on 0141 559 5319 or email lucy.christopher@tron.co.uk

Terms and conditions: Gift Memberships must be paid for up front and in full for 12 months. Bronze patron membership excludes tickets for our annual panto. Full benefits of each scheme can be viewed on our website. Belle and Blackley offer only applies to those who have never been a member of the current or any past Tron membership schemes, or those purchasing an additional gift membership and is limited to the first 30 sign ups.
